

2019 Officer of the Year

Officer Paul Jensen has been named the Officer of the Year for 2019. Officer Jensen has been with the department since 2012 and was selected Officer of the Year for displaying compassion, leadership, and having a strong work ethic.

Officer Jensen is currently assigned to the patrol division. He supports the department through his work on the reserve officer program, creating technical reports, creating city maps for patrol officers, training staff on our new digital fingerprinting device, and being a field training officer.

Officer Jensen is a lifelong resident of River Falls, graduated from University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire with a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice, served in the National Guard, and started his career with the River Falls Police Department as a member of our reserve officer program.

Officer Jensen is recognized for his personal motivation, excellent teamwork, and the professionalism that he displays on a daily basis. Furthermore, his exemplary job performance demonstrates his dedication to this department and, more importantly, to the community to which he serves.

Congratulations to Officer Paul Jensen, the River Falls Police Department's 2019 Officer of the Year!
